GENERAL P2 INFORMATION

EPA-742-E-01-001      Why Should You Care About Preventing Waste? Pollution Prevention Pocketbook (8 pp) July 2001

This easy-to-use reference guide helps businesses learn how they can implement waste reduction activities and save money at the same time. It provides a process for identifying, implementing, and measuring waste reduction. It also discusses the benefits of waste reduction for small businesses.

EPA-744-F-01-023      National Pollution Prevention Resource Guide (12 pp) July 2001

This companion piece to "Why Should You Care About Preventing Waste? Pollution Prevention Pocketbook" contains a listing of the "best of the best" national pollution prevention resources. This national guide covers general P2 information and information on sector-specific technical resources, voluntary partnership programs, financial assistance, and pollution prevention publications.

The EPA Regional P2 Resources guides below provide contact information on EPA Regional Office P2 coordinators and Environmental Assistance Teams; contact information on each area's P2 resource centers; and state/local environmental agency P2 and Small Business Development contacts.
