INTRODUCTION

This the first edition of the Directory of State Environmental Libraries. The Directory is part of an EPA initiative to expand information sharing between EPA and the States. It will be updated in October of each year.

The Directory contains information on the collections and services provided by State environmental libraries. It also contains four appendices covering the following areas:

- o Subject Index to State Environmental Library Collections
- o List of State Environmental Hotlines
- o Directory of State Environmental Librarians (By Librarian)
- o Directory of State Environmental Librarians (By State)

The information contained in the Directory was collected from State environmental libraries. Libraries were identified by the Information Management and Services Division and the EPA Library Network. We are aware that some libraries may not be listed.

If you know of other State environmental libraries not included in this edition, please give them a copy of the "State Environmental Libraries Collection and Services" form which is located in the back of the Directory and ask them to complete and return the form to the address listed below:

Chief, Information Services Branch (PM-211D)

TELEPHONE: (907) 465-2621

LIBRARIAN: Katie Sloan

(Currently staffed 8:00 a.m. to noon only. May be staffed full-time in the Fall.)

TIME ZONE: Pacific

DESCRIPTION OF COLLECTION AND SERVICES: The library contains approximately 10,000 books and documents, including books classified by the Library of Congress system, Alaska State documents, Alaska municipal documents, University of Alaska documents, documents from other States and countries, conference and symposium proceedings, EPA documents, Federal documents and environmental impact statements.

The library subscribes to 75 periodicals held in the Juneau central office, and administers subscriptions received elsewhere in the State (some 200) at DEC offices.

Only one-fifth of the collection is cataloged. The library offers a "periodical awareness service" to DEC employees where the tables of contents of magazines are copied and sent to anyone interested. The employees then ask for the articles to be sent to them via interlibrary loan (ILL).

INTERLIBRARY LOAN (ILL) POLICY: The Alaska DEC library does not charge an ILL fee. The library responds to ILL requests received when possible and refers those it cannot fill to other agencies. The DEC requests a number of ILL's from other libraries, many from the EPA library in the Region. While the DEC library is a branch of the Alaska State Library and open to the public, 95% of its circulation and ILL activity is for DEC and other State employees.
