

Resource Guide for Small Drinking Water Systems

Foreword

This Resource Guide was prepared for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Office of Drinking Water, by The Cadmus Group, Inc. under Contract 68-03-3348. The EPA Work Assignment Manager was Brian Rourke; he was assisted by Dr. David W. Schnare and Jane Ephremides. The Cadmus Project Director was Gene E. Fax. Contributing authors were Matthew Pierce, Vidya Ganesan, and Laura Paradise. Cheryl Secor and Matthew Pierce typset and produced the Guide. Cadmus gratefully acknowledges the assistance of the government agencies and private organizations named in this Guide.

The Resource Guide lists sources of financial and technical assistance available to small drinking water systems. Each source includes a brief description, address, and phone number. You should contact the organizations directly to obtain current program information.

You may use this Guide as a companion to four manuals published by EPA in September 1989 to assist small drinking water systems to assess their financial and managerial condition. These manuals are:

"Water System Self-Assessment for Mobile Home Parks," EPA 570/9-89-011

"Self-Assessment for Small Privately Owned Water Systems," EPA 570/9-89-012

"Water System Self-Assessment for Homeowners' Associations," EPA 570/9-89-013

"Self-Assessment for Small Publicly Owned Water Systems," EPA 570/9-89-014

NOTES

PART I. REGULATORY AGENCIES

Environmental Protection Agency

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is responsible for protection of drinking water supplies under the Safe Drinking Water Act. The agency establishes national drinking water standards and monitors state enforcement of drinking water regulations. Contact the EPA regional office near you for information on water quality standards, system management and operations. Refer to Appendix A for a listing of EPA Regional Offices.

State Regulatory Agencies

State environmental agencies enforce drinking water standards set by EPA and by the states. Water supply staff can give you information on state regulations, operator training programs, and certification requirements. For the addresses and phone numbers of state regulatory offices, see Appendix B: State Regulatory Agencies.

Public Utility Commissions

State Public Utility Commissions (PUCs) regulate water rates. The Commissions try to ensure that consumers pay fair prices for utility supplied services such as drinking water or electricity. Most states regulate investor-owned utilities. Some regulate municipal utilities, homeowners' associations, and mobile home parks as well. Depending on your state's laws, you may be required to obtain PUC approval before changing your water rates or obtaining a loan. See Appendix C: Public Utility Commissions.

NOTES

PART II. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Federal Programs

Farmers Home Administration (FmHA)
Water & Waste Disposal Division
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Room 6322 S. Building
Washington, DC 20250
(202) 382-9583

FmHA provides loans and grants to rural low-income communities for water or sewer system improvements and construction. Funds are available to publicly owned systems and non-profit corporations. Systems must be located in rural areas and towns of less than 10,000 people, although areas of less than 5,500 receive priority. Applicants must:

- be unable to receive funds from other sources at reasonable rates and terms;
- have the legal capacity to enter into, secure, and pay loans, and operate the facility;
- be financially sound and able to manage the facility effectively; and
- have a financial base sound enough to pay the facility's operating costs and retire the loan.

Applications are accepted throughout the year. See Appendix D: Farmers Home Administration State Offices.

Community Development Block Grants (CDBG)
Small Cities Program
U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
451 7th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20410
(202) 755-6690

The HUD Small Cities Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program offers grants of $500,000 or less for community improvements that directly benefit low or moderate income persons, and eliminate health and safety hazards. Publicly owned systems in communities of less than 50,000 persons are eligible for CDBG grants. Many states will not fund water system improvement projects unless they are combined with other community improvements.

The CDBG program is administered by state planning or community affairs offices. Application criteria and deadlines vary by state. See Appendix E: State Agencies Administering Community Development Block Grants.

Economic Development Administration (EDA)

U.S. Department of Commerce

Room H 7814

Washington, DC 20230

(202) 377-5113

The EDA offers grants to economically distressed areas for the purpose of encouraging economic development and increasing employment opportunities. Grants are targeted to EDA-defined "redevelopment areas" or "economic development centers". Water system development or expansion are considered eligible activities when they are part of an economic development program. Publicly owned systems or associations representing redevelopment areas or economic development centers are eligible. Refer to Appendix F: Economic Development Administration Regional offices.

Small Business Administration (SBA)

1441 L Street, N.W.

Washington, DC 20416

(202) 653-6600

The Small Business Administration offers loan assistance to privately owned utilities that are unable to obtain funds from other financing sources. Eligibility is based on the size of your business: annual receipts may not exceed $3.5 to 14.5 million depending on the industry.

SBA offers two basic types of business loans:

Guaranty loans. The SBA guarantees up to 90% of loans made by private lenders. The maximum guaranty percentage for loans exceeding $155,000 is 85%. SBA can guarantee up to $750,000 of a private sector loan.

SBA direct loans. Direct loans of up to $150,000 are available to applicants unable to secure an SBA-guaranteed loan. Direct loan funds are limited, and, at times, are available only to borrowers meeting low-income, minority or veteran-owned criteria.

See Appendix G: Small Business Administration District Offices.

State Programs

Many states offer loans and grants for water system improvements necessary to comply with drinking water requirements. In some states, both publicly and privately owned systems are eligible for funding. The amount and the terms of financial assistance differ from state to state. A list of state agencies which have administered funding programs in the past is provided below. Individual programs may vary from year to year as program goals and funding levels change. Operators should contact these agencies for current information on program provisions, eligibility criteria, and application requirements. If your state is not listed below, contact your state drinking water regulatory agency (Appendix B) for more information.

PART III. TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

National Programs

American Water Works Association (AWWA)

6666 W. Quincy Avenue
Denver, CO 80235
(303) 794-7711

The AWWA is a scientific and educational association that conducts research and develops publications on waterworks design, operation, management, and financing. The AWWA sponsors workshops and conferences on a variety of drinking water topics. The Association has 40 regional sections, each of which conducts meetings on state or regional water system operations and management issues.

Environmental Quality Instructional Resource Center (EQ/IRC)

The Ohio State University
1200 Chambers Road, Room 310
Columbus, OH 43212
(614) 292-6717

EQ/IRC provides information on water system design, operation, and management to municipalities, engineers and trainers. The Center offers training manuals and audiovisual materials for rent or sale. The Center has an Instructional Resources Information System (IRIS) database with over 14,000 entries on water and wastewater issues.

Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB)

401 Merritt, #7
P.O. Box 5166
Norwalk, CT 06856-5166
(203) 847-0700

The GASB offers publications on business accounting practices and develops accepted accounting standards for profit-making and non-profit corporations.

Interstate Conference on Water Problems

21 Dupont Circle, NW
Suite 600
Washington, DC 20036
(202) 466-7287

The Interstate Conference is a non-profit corporation of state and regional agencies concerned with environmental issues. The conference disseminates information on water and land-related issues.

League of Women Voters (LWV)

1730 M Street, NW
Washington, DC 20036
(202) 429-1965

The LWV has launched a special effort to address the needs of small drinking water systems. The League offers publications on drinking water topics and recently completed a nationwide survey on drinking water issues. Contact the LWV national office for information about your local chapter's drinking water activities.

Manufactured Housing Associations

Most states have Manufactured Housing Associations, membership organizations of mobile home park owners. They represent owners' needs to state and national organizations and provide information on various aspects of park management including water system operation. See Appendix I: State and Regional Manufactured Housing Associations.

National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC)

P.O. Box 684, 1102 ICC Building
Constitution Avenue and 12th Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20044
(202) 898-2200

NARUC represents the interests of Public Utilities Commissions throughout the United States. The association provides information and publications on various utility issues.

National Association of Towns and Townships (NATaT)

1522 K Street, NW

Suite 730

Washington, DC 20005

(202) 737-5200

NATaT is a membership organization of municipalities throughout the United States. The organization develops training programs and publications in response to membership concerns. NATaT offers handbooks on water system financing.

National Association of Water Companies (NAWC)

1725 K Street, N.W.

Suite 1212

Washington, DC 20006

(202) 833-8383

NAWC is a non-profit corporation that represents investor-owned water utilities on national, state and local issues. NAWC provides educational programs and publications on regulatory compliance, operations and management. NAWC has state chapters; phone numbers may be obtained by contacting the national office.

National Environmental Health Association (NEHA)

720 S. Colorado Blvd. #970

South Tower

Denver, CO 80222

(303) 756-9090

NEHA conducts conferences and seminars on environmental issues. The association offers a monthly newsletter and administers home study courses on water issues.

National Environmental Training Association (NETA)

8687 Via de Ventura, Suite 214

Scottsdale, AZ 85258

(602) 951-1440

NETA publishes training materials on various water and wastewater issues. NETA conducts workshops for trainers in the field of water system management.

National Rural Water Association

P.O. Box 1428
Duncan, OK 73534
(405) 252-0629

The National Rural Water Association is a non-profit organization that provides training and technical assistance to rural water systems. The association operates state programs that provide on-site assistance to rural water systems. Services are targeted to communities with populations of 10,000 or fewer. Workshops are offered on all aspects of water system financing, operations and management. Refer to Appendix J: State Rural Water Associations.

New England Water Works Association (NEWWA)

42A Dilla Street
Medford, MA 01757
(508) 478-6996

The NEWWA is a membership organization representing consultants, water system managers, and technical experts. NEWWA provides its members with the opportunity to exchange ideas and information pertaining to the construction and management of water works. NEWWA sponsors workshops and offers publications on water works operations and management.

Rural Community Assistance Program (RCAP)

602 S. King Street #402
Leesburg, VA 22075
(703) 771-8636

The Rural Community Assistance Program offers publications on water system planning, operations, and management. RCAP has six affiliated regional Rural Community Assistance Programs which provide training and technical assistance on water and sewer projects to low-income rural areas. Assistance is provided at no charge to privately and publicly owned systems. Services include: planning, finance packaging, operations and management assistance, engineering review and water supply protection. See Appendix K: Rural Community Assistance Programs.

State and Regional Programs

The Village Safe Water Program (VSWP)
Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation
Box O
Juneau, AK 99811-1800
(907) 465-2664

VSWP provides technical assistance to rural districts in Alaska to construct water systems funded by the state. On-site training and technical assistance are provided in the areas of operation and management, financing, rate setting, project management, recruitment, and contract negotiations.

The Inter-Tribal Council Of Arizona, Inc.
4205 N. 7th Street, Suite 200
Phoenix, AZ 85013
(602) 248-0071

The Inter-Tribal Council provides operating and finance packaging assistance to tribes managing water systems. The Council coordinates with the Indian Health Service and provides on-site technical assistance. The Council sponsors workshops and conferences, and offers papers and publications on water system management issues.

Rural Development Assistance Program (RDAP)
California Department of Housing and Community Development
1834 Mangrove Ave., Suite B
Chico, CA 95926
(916) 891-6870

RDAP provides technical assistance and training to local governments, non-profit corporations, and private corporations on community development programs and water system planning, financing and management.

Local Government Services Technical Assistance Program
Colorado Division of Local Government
Department of Local Affairs
1313 Sherman Street, Room 521
Denver, CO 80203
(303) 866-2156

The Local Government Services Technical Assistance Program emphasizes strengthening local officials' water system management capabilities. Training programs offered include: water system financing, management and regulatory compliance. The Division coordinates its efforts with the Department of Health, Colorado Water Conservation Board and Colorado Rural Water Association.

West Central Nebraska Development District

710 N. Spruce Street
P.O. Box 599
Ogallala, NE 69153
(308) 284-6077

The development district provides technical assistance and training to local governments on water system planning, financing, and management.

New York State Self-Help Support System

New York Department of State
Office of Local Government Services
162 Washington Avenue
Albany, NY 12231
(518) 473-3355

The Self-Help Support system provides technical assistance and "how-to" materials to rural water and sewer system managers in New York. The goal of the program is to reduce the cost of water system construction and system rehabilitation. Services include planning, financing, and assistance with operation and management. The program also offers loans at a reduced interest rate for self-help projects. The Department of State coordinates its efforts with the State Department of Health and Department of Environmental Conservation.

Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA)

Water Resources Branch
Evans Building
502 Union Avenue
Knoxville, TN 37902
(615) 632-7183

The TVA promotes low-cost water system design through demonstrations, conferences and information materials. On-site training and assistance with engineering review, trouble-shooting, and operations is provided to 201 counties in Tennessee, Alabama, Kentucky, North Carolina, Georgia, Virginia, and Mississippi.

Washington State Department of Health
Olympia, WA 98504
(206) 753-5954

The Department offers assistance with public water system coordination, satellite support systems, and municipal water supply funding.

Great Northern Corporation (GNC)
780 S. Davis Street
Weed, CA 96094
(916) 938-4115

GNC provides on-site assistance to rural low-income communities on project development, grant procurement and administration, facility operation, and management. GNC also provides assistance through contracts to manage construction grant projects. The corporation serves as a liaison between local and state agencies.

Blue Grass Area Development District, Inc.
3220 Nicholasville Road
Lexington, KY 40503
(606) 272-6656

The Blue Grass Area program helps small communities to improve water system operations, management, and compliance. Staff provide on-site training and technical assistance to local officials on planning, management, and financing. The program serves 17 counties in the Blue Grass Region of Kentucky and targets services to cities with populations of 5,000 or fewer.

Pennsylvania Municipal Authorities Association
2941 North Front Street
Harrisburg, PA 17110
(717) 233-7696

The Pennsylvania Municipal Authorities Association provides information and training to municipal governments. Topics covered include: billing, metering, engineering and accounting. The association also offers workshops on preparing rate cases.

Other State Programs

See Appendix L: State Municipal Associations

University Programs

Operator Training Program
Office of Water Programs
California State University-Sacramento
6000 J Street
Sacramento, CA 95819-2694
(916) 278-6142

California State University offers various self-study courses to water treatment plant operators of small and very small water systems. The CSU certification program partially meets the educational requirements for operator certification in some states. Courses include: Water Treatment Plant Operation, Small Water System Operation and Maintenance, Water Distribution System Operation and Maintenance.
