Electronic Mail Directory

Electronic Mail is a computer-based message system which allows the exchange of "Messages" through a central "Electronic Mailbox." Communicating word processors, data terminals, personal or office computers, and other types of standard office automation equipment may be used to send "Messages."

The EPA Electronic Mail service provides virtually instantaneous transmission of textual information between persons and organizations throughout the Agency, regardless of location or time of transmission.

If you are in need of assistance, contact WIC User Support 202-260-7200 or WIC Tele Communications 202-260-3254.

Facsimile Directory

The Communications Center at Headquarters is located in Room MG-100B of Waterside Mall. It is open from 8:00 to 5:30 daily. All messages received before 4:00 pm normally will be transmitted the same day. Headquarters and field locations have been furnished with high speed equipment that offers quality and increased transmission speeds. For best results, use only black ink on white paper.

Priority letters, drawings, charts, forms, and photographs are particularly appropriate for facsimile communications. Please limit transmission to 20 pages or less except in emergency situations.
