FOREWORD

This 1988 supplement to the Environmental Organizations Directory includes a listing of non-profit organizations which are in part, at least, interested in the environment, but were not included in the first edition. This supplement also contains corrections of addresses which have changed. Information which is an addition to the original is listed plainly, whereas corrections are preceded by an asterisk (*).

This supplement is arranged alphabetically by state in EPA's Region VIII. Where a state has been omitted, we did not receive any additions or corrections. Information is listed in the following manner:

Organization Title (acronym, if used)
A brief description of the groups' interests and other information that the group provided to us
Chapter Title (if applicable)
Contact Person's Name
Mailing Address
City, State Zip Code
Telephone Number for the Group

In some cases, the organization did not provide all of the above information.

We realize that any list is subject to change and revision. If you discover any errors or omissions, please call them to our attention. We are available by mail at the following address:
